

Mr Graham Cox

Over 35 years I have been successively Yearbook founder and Editor, Chairman and President of the Bristol and West Working Gundog Society, and I currently serve on the Committee of the International Gundog League (Retriever Society) which is responsible for running the IGL Retriever Championship. He is also a Vice-President of the Golden Retriever Club.

I Started running in Trials in 1978 and have had 6 Trial winning Golden Retrievers, two of which gained their working titles. FTCh Littlemarston Comma of Wydcombe was made up in the 1989-90 season and FTCh Holway Martina of Wydcombe in 2011.

I became an A Panel Retriever Judge in 1988 and have judged throughout Great Britain and Europe including, in 1998, the Danish Retriever Championship.

I sit on the Field Trials Sub-Committee and I am a member of its Judges Education and J Regulations Review working parties.

Since 1978 I have contributed extensively to many magazines, including all issues of The Shooting Gazette and between 1999 and 2009 was Gundog Advisor to The Country Landowners' Association having led the commentary team at the CLA Game Fair during the previous fifteen years.
