

Mr K Doughty

I have been involved in training dogs since 1976 and since that time have served on several gundog committees and I am currently Vice-Chairman of the Cambridgeshire Field Trial Society.

I have been an A Panel Judge since 1996 and am also a Judges Education Presenter. At present I run a Kennel and Cattery with my wife which enables me to compete and judge at Field Trials. I had the pleasure of judging the Retriever Championship at Sandringham in 2003 and also the European Championship in 2007.

My best dog to date was FTCh Handford Zealot of Highseas (Zulu). At present I have 3 Labradors, 2 Cockers, a Golden Retriever and a Cocker Spaniel, all of which I hope to compete with.
