

Mr R J Aldenton

I have owned and bred dogs for most of my life but only became involved in Field Trials in the early 1990's, when I bought my first Spaniel and became hooked on the breed and the sport. I enjoy training and competing with both English Springer Spaniels and Cocker Spaniels but also like to get involved with the organising and the judging of Field Trials and Gundog Working Tests.