

Companion Dog Show Organiser of the Year

As an added incentive Companion Dog Club members who organise Companion Dog Shows are also eligible to be nominated for Organiser of the Year. Established in 2007, members are already rallying their friends and families to help prove why their shows are the best.

To qualify, we are looking for entries from those special people who work hard to put on fantastic dog events and raise much needed funds for a wide range of causes. If this sounds like you or someone that you know, we want to hear from you.

The Companion Dog Show Organiser of the Year will be announced at Discover Dogs at Earls Court, held each November, call 0844 4633 980 to apply.

Ideas that will impress our judges are:

- At least one Companion Dog Club class per show.
- Have generated over £1,000 for charitable causes.
- Have a minimum of 5 Companion Dog Club members in a Companion Dog Club class.
- Feedback details of the winners of the Companion Dog Club class with photographs so that they can be featured in the members Special Interest Group.
- Has made the effort or actively recruited new Companion Dog Club members at their show.

Yvonne Cox was one of many fantastic fundraisers who entered the Organiser of the Year in 2009. Her outstanding event organisation ensured a successful and enjoyable day for all, and helped her secure the sought after title of Organiser of the Year.

Organiser of the Year 2009 Yvonne Cox

"This year we had our best show ever, with an amazing turnout and we were delighted with that we raised over £2,000 for our worthy cause".
