European Open France 2016

The 2016 European Open was held on 24 - 26 July 2016 at Calais, France. Agility Team GB did not win any medals this year but it was nonetheless a successful event for the Team, with a number of achievements, which were as follows:

- Both large teams in the Team Final – the first time Team GB have qualified a team for the final.
- Five large dogs qualified for the Sunday individual final – the most Team GB have had in the final.
- Two medium and two small dogs qualified for Sunday finals – on par with recent years' performance.
