

Yvonne Croxford

I have been competing for over 30 years in Agility and have a number of Border Collies that I have had the pleasure of competing with at Championship Level. I think Agility is a great sport for all dogs and handlers. By being on the Agility Liaison Council, I feel this is a great way that I can put back into the sport.