- If you go out, stay two metres (6ft) away from other people at all times
- Wash your hands as soon as you get home

The full guidance on complying with these measures is available on the GOV.UK website. Due to

KENNEL CLUB AND OUR DOGS JOIN FORCES IN CHARITY APPEAL FOR RESCUE DOGS

Our Dogs, Britain's weekly newspaper devoted to the canine world, has launched an appeal in support of the emergency relief fund recently established by the Kennel Club Charitable Trust (KCCT) to assist dog rescue organisations affected by the coronavirus pandemic.

The hope is that, through online and text donations, readers of the paper will be able to help to contribute to funds set aside by the Trust to provide emergency support to those dogs in greatest need during the current crisis.

Regular updates on the progress of the appeal will appear on the social media channels of both Our Dogs and the Kennel Club, as well as in the paper.

Established in 1987, the Trust has already distributed grants totalling over £11 million to a wide variety of causes supporting its charitable purposes across canine health, support dogs, welfare and rescue.

Chairman of the Kennel Club Charitable Trust, Reverend Bill King, said: "The Trust has set aside funds to provide emergency help to dogs who are suffering and it is such welcome news that Our Dogs has launched its appeal supporting this cause. Please help in whatever way you can, as your donation truly will make a difference for dogs."

Vince Hogan, Managing Director of Our Dogs, added: "Why not donate the equivalent of an entry fee, or the money you would have spent on petrol going to one show or your show refreshments or even host an online dog show? Working with the KCCT means that whatever money is raised, we can be sure it will go to supporting rescue dogs with relief funds which we are assured will be distributed quickly and effectively."

Making a donation is very simple. Please go to the secure Virgin Money Giving website at <https://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/fund/KCCT>

Donations can also be made via text. Please see the full press release for details at bit.ly/2KpAEcE

Acknowledgement of all donations will be made on the Kennel Club Charitable Trust page of the Kennel Club website at www.thekennelclub.org.uk

FAWKES WINS HEELWORK TO MUSIC FINAL

Wildsea Phoenix Of Fire, a ten-year-old Border Collie, and his owner Caroline Garrett, from Hove, East Sussex, won the Heelwork to Music final at the world's greatest dog show, Crufts.

Caroline and 'Fawkes' beat nine other finalists to win the Heelwork to Music final on Friday 6 March.

Each year Crufts hosts the finals of both heelwork to music and freestyle competitions. All advanced level dogs and handlers can qualify for Crufts by entering one or more of a series of qualifying events held throughout the year.

The participants devised routines of up to four minutes, set to music, and performed them with their dog in the Resorts World Arena at the NEC, Birmingham.

The proud owner Caroline said: "I'm absolutely delighted as Crufts has been a big goal of mine over the last months. I'm so proud of how well Fawkes performed today. I've already given him two new toys and he's going to be getting lots of treats this evening!"

Vanessa McAlpine, Crufts Show Manager, commented: "Very well done to Fawkes and Caroline for an impressive routine in the main arena. Heelwork to music is a challenging activity that demands patience, skill and talent to perfect – it was wonderful to see so many wonderful dogs and their handlers at Crufts this year."

Further heelwork to music results from Crufts can be found at www.crufts.org.uk/dog-exhibitors/heelwork-to-music/.

BORDER COLLIES WIN OBEDIENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Two Border Collies were the winners of the Obedience Championships at Crufts – in dogs, Sarkam Soul Searcher owned by Shirley Clowes from Stone, Staffordshire and in bitches, Ob Ch Longwaves Luminescent owned by Jodi Lunn from Tonbridge, Kent. The judge was Michelle Newman.

Proud owner Shirley said of her win with 'Tsu'tey': "The last three dogs I had run at Crufts failed to complete the round, so my aim this year was just to get to the end with Tsu'tey. Winning the ticket and making him into an Obedience Champion was definitely a bonus. Most people who compete in obedience have two aims – to get to Crufts and to make up a champion – so this was a very happy show for me indeed."

In relation to 'Fia', the winner of the Bitch Championship, Crufts Show Manager Vanessa McAlpine said: "Huge congratulations to Fia and Jodi for their impressive Crufts win. Their strong bond was highlighted in their excellent teamwork and it was great to see how obedient Fia was. Obedience competitors come from far and wide in the UK to showcase their skills at the show and the standard of dogs and their handlers who enter are always very impressive."

The Reserve Obedience Certificates were awarded to, in dogs, Sue King's Working Sheepdog, Ob Ch Jodame Dutch Courage, and in bitches, Mary Ray's Border Collie, Ob Ch Sarkam Sings The Blues.

All competitors at the championships had made it through to the final from one of the 46 championship shows that hosted qualifying classes for the Crufts Obedience Championships.

Further obedience results from Crufts can be found at www.crufts.org.uk/dog-exhibitors/obedience/.

AGILITY CHAMPIONSHIPS PRODUCE THE GOODS!

Further
agility results from Crufts can be
<https://www.crufts.org.uk/dog-exhibitors/agility/>

The Agility Championships at Crufts, as usual, attracted a great deal of support from the huge crowds in the main arena. The judge was Jackie Gardner and all three finals produced the goods as far as excitement was concerned.

The Large final winner was Dave Munnings' Border Collie, Ag Ch Comebyanaway Reddy For Fame.

Proud owner Dave said: "That was awesome, 'Fame' was amazing. When it's this standard and everyone's so good, it's so close, by the millisecond, one extra stride somewhere can win or lose a whole class.

"There's the top of the top in the country here and when you get here, there's the pressure and the nerves, things can go wrong that wouldn't usually go wrong so to win here is very special.

"Fame is level-headed, she's crazy when I need her to be, she's chilled at home. She's just a perfect dog, I'm so lucky with her."

The Medium final winner was Ashleigh Butler's Bearded Collie cross, Eliza Doolots for Ashpen.

Thrilled owner Ashleigh said: "Every year the competition gets quicker and quicker, there's new training techniques, handling techniques, so the build up to Crufts was all about building Eliza's stamina and getting her in the best shape she possibly is.

"It's such an honour to bring another dog and be competitive with her and Crufts is like no other show. I still get as nervous ahead of every single run and I still get that buzz from the crowd driving you on down to that last jump and finishing, so I just love Crufts!"

The Small final winner

was Lauren Langman's Cocker Spaniel, Ag Ch Samsir Blinkin Brilliant at Devongem.

Lauren said of her win with 'Blink': "That was so much fun. I've been here many times and I've not won it so it's amazing to keep trying and finally do the big one.

"Agility is, for us, 24/7. We sleep it, we dream it, we think it, we train it. It's a lot of fun, a lot of games and it's not really all agility training, it's more about relationship so if you've got a great relationship then everything falls into place."

"AGILITY IS,
FOR US, 24/7.
WE SLEEP IT,
WE DREAM IT,
WE THINK IT,
WE TRAIN IT."

This is to encourage exhibitors to submit permission to show with the knowledge that this anonymous information will be incorporated into an evidence base for their breed, and will be invaluable in identifying common surgical procedures and areas in breed health that the Kennel Club can support, for the betterment of the breed. Any queries regarding this should be directed to the Health Team at health@thekennelclub.org.uk

This section of the Kennel Club Journal is dedicated to KCAI Scheme members. It provides information on the resources available to members, announcements on newly awarded Kennel Club Accredited Instructors, and KCAI Scheme news and updates.

For more information on the KCAI Scheme, please visit: www.kcai.org.uk

Virgin Giving

The Kennel Club Charitable Trust's sole purpose is to 'make a difference for dogs'. Since its inception in 1987, the Trust has awarded over £10 million in grants by funding a wide variety of work ranging from supporting research into canine diseases to welfare initiatives and the promotion of support dogs. The Kennel Club supports the Trust by providing all its administration, fundraising and marketing requirements. Therefore, every pound that is raised goes directly to the Trust ensuring that our canine companions and people within the world of dogs enjoy the maximum benefit. If you would like to support the Trust, there are a variety of ways to achieve this, either by postal donations, direct debit or standing order, debit or credit card, gift aid and legacy. If you would like further information, please contact The Kennel Club Charitable Trust, Clarges Street, Piccadilly, London, call 01296 318540 or go to www.kccharitabletrust.org.uk Registered Charity No. 327802

You can make a difference for dogs... by giving them healthier and happier lives

The Kennel Club Charitable Trust (KCCT) provides grants to various canine organisations nationwide, many of which are involved in the rescue and welfare of dogs. In 2017, the KCCT gave grants totalling nearly £675,000.

Your support is essential to us and by giving whatever you can afford, you can help make a difference for dogs.

The KCCT has three objectives, the funding of:

SCIENCE - Research into diseases and other health conditions for dogs

SUPPORT - The training of dogs to help humans

WELFARE - The rescue and re-homing of dogs which need help
