KENNEL CLUB BOARD STATEMENT ON KC EVENTS

Following the statement made by The Kennel Club at the beginning of July, the Kennel Club Board issued a further statement on August 11 to continue to reassure competition organisers, exhibitors and competitors that our sports committees remain committed to working on solutions to help enable shows, competitions and other events to resume as and when they can and it is safe for them to do so.

The Kennel Club appreciates the frustrations felt and experienced in trying to get events to recommence, but we are limited in giving specific direction due to the lack of clarity over the types of event which can take place. We are in regular contact with the Government, some of whose guidance is not always clear-cut, and will make a statement as and when we receive specific advice. We have been proactive within our remit to relax and suspend a range of competition regulations to assist clubs and societies with their risk assessments which are essential before a decision is made as to whether an event should go ahead.

Indeed, we have seen the cancellation of large events very recently, which has served to highlight the level of frustration felt by so many and we must acknowledge the tremendous efforts made by clubs and societies in attempting to stage such events during these turbulent times.

If societies want to go ahead with a show or trial the planning must be done with the utmost care to ensure that all participants are safe and measures are put in place to mitigate the transmission of Covid-19. Currently one of the most important aspects of event planning is to as far as possible ensure the club/society's finances can carry the cost of any last minute cancellation due to a local authority imposed lockdown and can cope with the additional equipment needed to make their event Covid secure.

Large events in particular make a very serious and huge financial commitment well in advance of being staged, often with substantial non-refundable deposits involved, so this too must be borne in mind.

All risk assessments are unique to each event and venue, taking this into account we can share a range of headings which must be considered within a risk assessment. The purpose of which is to ensure that all reasonable steps are taken to mitigate the risk of transmission of Covid-19 and to implement social distancing amongst participants. These include:

BE FLEXIBLE AND ADAPTABLE

One of the most important considerations is to think of the impact on financial planning, for example reduced capacity in respect of entries or spectators, local lockdowns and cancellation and the additional costs of signage, hygiene and cleaning measures required as well as all the pre financial costs in running an event.

PRACTICAL MEASURES

The sorts of measure to take into account include:

- The social distancing parameters 2m/1m (with mitigation), 10m² per person density, 'last mile' (zone around event venue) and the effect on its local amenities such as hotels, campsites, pubs etc
- Entrance/exit, queue management, pinch points – congestion, crowd density/capacity, ring management, touch points (shared equipment etc), ventilation (indoor venues), hygiene, catering, toilets, PPE masks
- Individuals you need to think about

- competitors/ exhibitors, veterinary cover (if applicable to the event), judges, stewards, visitors, and any trade stand holders

• Arrangements for 'Test and Trace' Regular contact with the Local Authority where the show/ trial is taking place is considered essential especially in the run up to the event. The Local Authority will need to know the venue size, anticipated numbers of participants (exhibitors, traders, officials, dogs etc.) so that it can locally risk-assess in terms of the then current Covid-19 rates, other local events and amenities in and around the area.

Tony Allcock OBE, Kennel Club Chairman, said: "The Board would like to acknowledge the tremendous efforts being made by Kennel Club staff, many of them working remotely due to the current pandemic which has generated a vast number of enquiries. Event management and planning also involves a huge amount of work including liaison with associated bodies, all of which has been dealt with in a very efficient way often under very challenging circumstances.

"The Board shares the anguish and frustrations of the dog world with this enforced halt of our beloved hobbies; the same sentiment is being expressed by many involved in other similar competitive leisure activities. However, the overriding concern for all at this time is to keep people safe. We have sympathy with those trying to arrange events, large or small, and cannot stress enough the importance of keeping abreast of the Government's guidance which is regularly changing and Local Authority consultation is essential. We are continuing to liaise with Government but in the meantime there is a range of advice and guidance for clubs and societies on our website for those which are considering running a show or trial."

KENNEL CLUB LAUNCHES LATEST 'GET STARTED' VIDEO

The Kennel Club has launched a new video, How to Get Started in Dog Showing, as part of a series of 'getting started' films, which show dog lovers how they can get involved in a range of activities with their four-legged friend.

Other videos in the series, launched in March at Crufts, cover three additional canine activities:

agility, obedience, and heelwork to music. These can be watched on the Kennel Club website at bit.ly/33yqAZI

The latest offering is presented by Charlotte-Louise Page and Alex Paisey who both grew up in the competitive world of dog shows, she with a penchant for Dalmatians and he with a passion for Deerhounds.

In the video, Charlotte-Louise and Alex give an outline of what dog shows are and offer a number of tips on how to prepare for your first show.

Other areas covered include the paperwork which needs to be filled out in order to enter a show, and how to get your dog to stand and move for the judge. The different types and levels of show are also discussed, as well as how the ultimate award of Best in Show is arrived at.

The view the video, please visit youtu.be/mZcu77tKSHo

Animal Health Trust closes: 40,000 DNA samples rescued

The Kennel Club and the Animal Health Trust issued a joint statement on July 28 to advise that, in the wake of the announcement of the closure of the AHT, the scientific data and biological material including more than 40,000 DNA samples stored at the Kennel Club Genetics Centre at the AHT's headquarters in Newmarket have been secured and moved to Cambridge University.

The Kennel Club Charitable Trust has funded the Genetics Centre since 2009. Led by Dr Cathryn Mellersh, the Centre aimed to develop, where possible, simple mouth swab screening tests to determine affected and carrier dogs. In deciding which diseases to investigate, the joint Kennel Club and AHT team was looking at the impact on the health and welfare of dogs, but also on the support of breeders and access to data and samples.

Bill King, Chairman of the Kennel Club Charitable Trust, said: "The Kennel Club and the Kennel Club Charitable Trust have long supported and worked together with the AHT to improve dog health, so it is a very positive development that the Kennel Club's considerable investment in this area has been saved in spite of a few weeks of uncertainty."

Dr Cathryn Mellersh added: "I would like to personally thank the Kennel Club Charitable Trust for their long standing support of this research and Professor James Wood, Head of the Department of Veterinary Medicine at Cambridge Vet School, for all his assistance in safeguarding our resources."

Young dog lovers learn to draw

A talented artist from Taunton, Somerset recently shared her expertise with dog-loving youngsters across the UK, when the Young Kennel Club (YKC) ran a series of online dog drawing tutorials.

Focusing on each of the seven pedigree dog groups, 26-year-old Lizzie Cadmore (née Greenslade), a former YKC member herself, hosted a week of videos teaching how to draw man's best friend, with a different breed each day.

The drawing classes were uploaded each day via the YKC website and also ran across the YKC Facebook group and Instagram channel, providing a perfect social distancing activity for the summer holidays.

The tutorials covered the following breeds: Dalmatian, Bichon Frise, Border Collie, Smooth Haired Dachshund, Labrador Retriever, Dobermann and Airedale Terrier.

Lizzie said: "It meant a lot to be able to share these virtual classes with the YKC members. The opportunities the YKC can provide are irreplaceable – as well as making friends for life, I'm sure I wouldn't be where I am now without having been a part of it!"

The YKC has been providing its dedicated members with fun games and activities to enjoy with their canine friends during lockdown across their website and social channels, including a successful online dog show last month, which saw over 1,000 entries, as well as printable quizzes, colouring pages and more.

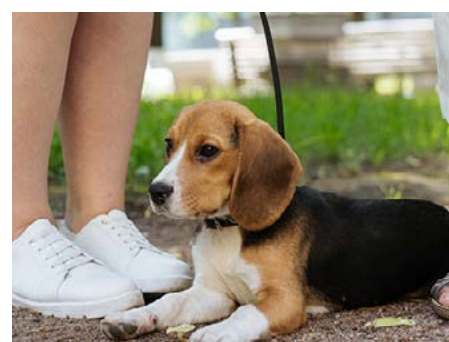

Outside of lockdown, the organisation provides a programme of dog activities throughout the year and across the UK, including handling, agility, grooming, flyball and many more, as well as exclusive access to training sessions.

More information for parents, or for young dog lovers who are interested in joining the Young Kennel Club, is available at www.ykc.org.uk where examples of some of the drawings can also be viewed.

KENNEL CLUB STANDS UP FOR NORTH DEVON DOG OWNERS

The Kennel Club constantly stands up for the rights of dog owners and recently urged those who live in North Devon, as well as frequent visitors to the area, to respond to a wide-ranging Public Spaces Protection Order (PSPO) consultation that could impact their access to popular locations with their dogs.

The proposed PSPO aims to restrict access to sites such as beaches, cemeteries and parks which are often frequented by dog walkers. Furthermore, it proposes to place a dogs on lead order for large areas of land such as Braunton Burrows and the Tarka Trail. This is likely to force dog owners to use alternative sites which may be impractical and remote, or even onto agricultural land which could lead to issues with livestock.

The Kennel Club is not opposed to the principle of restrictions on dog owners and walkers. It is often overlooked that problems associated with irresponsible dog ownership affect responsible dog owners as much as those without dogs. However, dog owners who live in North Devon or visit it often were strongly encouraged to view these proposals and provide their thoughts.

Ed Hayes, Public Affairs and Policy Manager at the Kennel Club, said: "We urged dog owners in North Devon to let their voices be heard and respond to this consultation.

"We believe that the PSPO proposals in North Devon have the potential to be particularly impactful as they may involve the exclusion of dogs from sites such as beaches and sport fields. This could affect the ability for dogs to be properly exercised and may pose a threat to the social bonds between dog walkers who have previously been able to walk together."

The Kennel Club also recently urged dog owners in Maidstone, Kent to respond to a PSPO consultation which could impose walking restrictions in the area.

There is further advice for dog owners facing access issues on the Kennel Club website: bit.ly/2XAtMQq

NEWS FROM THE KENNEL CLUB

YOUNG KENNEL CLUB SUMMER CAMP GOES ONLINE

This year's Young Kennel Club (YKC) Summer Camp was held online, for the first time ever, in August.

Arriving in the wake of the ongoing 'lockdown' situation, the digital alternative promised to provide plenty of activities and to be just as interactive as ever.

The YKC Summer Camp has been running since 1992 and was set for an action-packed return this summer, the first in six years, at Rutland Showground in Oakham. Sadly, amidst the current pandemic, the event in its physical form was cancelled in order to ensure the safety and security of participants, spectators, volunteers and staff. However, thanks to determination and perseverance, the event returned online, running for two weeks, with a full schedule of free activities to suit all interests, including a talent show, bake off and a dog walk challenge.

Vanessa McAlpine, Events Executive at the Kennel Club, said: "We were so pleased to be able to announce the return of the YKC Summer Camp, in an all-new virtual format. We know how much our members were looking forward to it, and as such an adored YKC annual tradition, it was a shame to not be able to see our attendees in person this year.

"However, with the new set-up came new opportunities, and by taking camp online we were able to run it for longer, with even more fun and activities, and our members continued to socialise and have fun with their friends, something which the YKC is renowned for. I would like to thank our hard-working staff and volunteers for ensuring Summer Camp was still able to go ahead this year."

KENNEL CLUB OFFERS TRAINING ADVICE DURING LOCKDOWN

The Kennel Club has provided dog owners with training advice on its website, designed to assist during these uncertain times.

IF YOU ARE GOING BACK TO TRAINING WITH OTHERS you must keep yourself and others safe. Taking the government guidance to work at home if you can is perfect for dog training. Make sure you are covering all the foundations to your training before you go elsewhere – this will help keep your dog under control and remind them what to do. Then you will arrive with your dog who is in tune with you. More details can be found at bit.ly/2DpjJXI

HAVE YOU BEEN AWAY FROM TRAINING FOR A WHILE? Here are some tips to get you back into training mode. Take a stroll around the garden and spend some time thinking about the strengths and weakness of your training. Have you kept yourself and your dog fit during your time out? If not, then you need to build up slowly. Refresh what your dog already knows by going back to basics – think about how you taught things. More details can be found at bit.ly/3kh94yK

AFTER A PERIOD OF BEING WITH YOUR DOG ALL THE TIME, such as holidays or during 'lockdown', it can be a great wrench for both you and your dog to have to be apart. You will need to start preparing before the big day comes if you can. It may be that your dog came to you during your time away from work – so now it's time for them to learn it is okay to be alone. More details can be found at bit.ly/39XZ2ht

Keep an eye on the Kennel Club website homepage for regular updates on how to care for your dog during the current lockdown situation at www.thekennelclub.org.uk

GOING OUT INTO THE BIG WIDE WORLD IS A BIG DEAL FOR A DOG that has been at home for longer than we would like. You can help your dog adjust by giving them some foundation exercises and experiences. If your dog is already of a timid, anxious or nervous disposition, talk to your vet or a behaviourist first for advice that may support them to get started. EVENTS – SEPTEMBER 2020

The Kennel Club would like to advise and reassure competition organisers, exhibitors and competitors that our Sports Committees are working on solutions to help enable shows, competitions and other events to resume when Government guidance allows and the current restrictions are sufficiently reduced or relaxed. We are also actively seeking Government advice and clarification on guidance already issued. We are looking at the safety measures that may need to be put in place, together with any Kennel Club Regulations which may need to be amended or relaxed to enable competitions to resume. As soon as more information is available, our guidance will be issued. We are aware that everyone is keen to resume their dog-related activities as soon as it is practical to do so, but please bear with us as we work towards helping you to provide the safest possible environment to allow for this. The continued health, safety and security of all participants at Kennel Club events is of paramount importance.

Please note that these details are correct at time of going to print. For an up-to-date list please go to www.findadogshow.org.uk
