Last year's overall winner of the Young Kennel Club Young Person of the Year award was Ryan Hennessy, 24, who set up the organisation Forever Agility in memory of his mum, Ann, who passed away from cancer in March 2019. Ryan is pictured at Crufts 2020 where he received his award.

Young Person of the Year nominations open

The Young Kennel Club is welcoming nominations once again for the next Young Person of the Year award, and is calling on the families and friends of YKC members to put forward those that they believe are deserving in one of the five categories.

To acknowledge the abnormal circumstances brought about by this year's lockdown, two new categories have been introduced, with all five highlighting the positive contribution that YKC members make to the world of dogs. The categories are:

• Personal

Achievement award:

Celebrating young people who have overcome personal challenges with their dog as well as the skills they have developed to achieve success in 2020

• Compassion award: Celebrating young people who dedicate their time volunteering to help others or where their job is to put others before themselves

• Inspiring Others award: Celebrating young people and their dogs who, through their positive attitude and inspirational approach, have proved to be a good role model in 2020

• Creative Talent award: Celebrating young people who have managed to keep positive by being creative. This award is for those who have honed existing creative skills, or started a skill during lockdown that they will carry forward with them

• Community award: Celebrating young people who show commitment and passion through social action – fundraising, campaigning, activities at school, college or community, for the welfare of dogs in 2020

Closing date for nominations is December 18. Anyone can nominate a YKC member in one of the categories by visiting www.ykc.org.uk/content/for-members/young-person-of-the-year-award/

Annual returns deadline extended to July 31

The Kennel Club has extended the deadline for submission of annual returns to 31 July 2021, in order to allow clubs and societies which have been unable to hold an AGM in 2020 to do so in 2021.

It remains necessary for an AGM to be held for each year to allow for formal approval and confirmation of business by members. However, a society may hold both the 2020 and 2021 AGM on the same day, one after the other, and then submit both sets of annual returns.

Please also see the FAQs available on the Kennel Club website at bit.ly/2GJQgsX.

All queries regarding the submission of annual returns should be directed to email sass@thekennelclub.org.uk

KC plans to use new model when allocating CCs

The Kennel Club plans to introduce a new model when allocating Challenge Certificates for shows held from 2024 onwards, it has been announced.

In some cases breed clubs which hold well-supported championship shows will be offered a second set of CCs in a year in a move designed to give a boost to the show scene and provide more opportunities for specialists to judge at CC level.

It is estimated that the implementation of the new model for the 2024-2028 period would result in 20 breeds retaining their present number of sets of CCs, while 39 breeds would lose one or more sets at group and general shows.

However, 104 breeds would gain one or more sets at breed club and/or group and general shows.

The existing model was last fully applied for the 2014 allocation and is now out of date, with many anomalies, for example the lowest entry breed does not have the lowest CC allocation. The creation in 2019 of the new 'all breeds' shows, which caused the minimum number of CCs on offer in some of the numerically smaller breeds to rise from seven to twelve, has highlighted the need for a new model, which is now being introduced.

Many breeds are now 'off the existing scale', as some with increased entries have had none or too few CCs allocated, while other breeds have experienced decreased entries but no CCs have been withdrawn. This means that breeds, exhibitors and shows are not being treated proportionately across the board. To apply the existing model to breeds would result in a net loss of 352 sets of CCs across the championship show scene.

The new model will be based on average numbers of dogs entered at shows over a five-year period, and the CC model and stud book bands will be linked together.

KC Charitable Trust helps autism charity

Autism at Kingwood, a charitable organisation based in Reading, has started a new dog therapy programme to improve the quality of their clients' lives, supported by the Kennel Club Charitable Trust which has assisted a number of charities during the pandemic through its emergency fund.

Providing extensive support for people with autism and Asperger's Syndrome, and offering therapy and educational programmes that help their clients to live the life they choose, Autism at Kingwood is now also providing animal assisted therapy in partnership with the charity Dogs for Good, exploring the ways that dogs can help people with a wide range of disabilities.

'Their support was even more important during the pandemic'

Fleck, and his handler Sarah Tosh-Robb, help Autism at Kingwood's clients with a range of day-to-day challenges, including navigating road safety and developing social skills.

Like other therapy programmes, Fleck and Sarah's work with clients at Kingwood was made difficult by coronavirus, but they found ways to stay connected and continue their work virtually. Their support was even more important during the pandemic, which was a period of heightened anxiety for some people with autism and Asperger's Syndrome.

There is more information about funding from the Kennel Club Charitable Trust and how to apply available at: www.thekennelclub.org.uk/kcct.

KC welcomes ban on third-party puppy sales in Wales

Following the results of a Welsh public consultation which found 98 per cent agree with a ban on third party puppy sales, Lesley Griffiths, Minister for Environment, Energy and Rural Affairs recently confirmed that the ban will be introduced by the end of this Senedd.

The move has been welcomed by The Kennel Club, the UK's largest organisation dedicated to the health and welfare of dogs, which has long-called for an end to the sale of puppies in pet shops and by other third party retailers, as puppy farmers often use such outlets to dupe unsuspecting members of the public who never see the terrible conditions that the pups were raised in.

Holly Conway, Head of Public Affairs at The Kennel Club, commented: "We certainly welcome the results of this consultation and that the public overwhelmingly support the move to ban third party sales of puppies in Wales, which we have long-campaigned for and is a vital step forward to tackle the cruel puppy farming industry.

"When this policy is implemented it should stop the suffering of many dogs and send a very strong message to puppy buyers that it is never ok to see a puppy in any environment other than the one it was born and raised in, and with its mum. We call upon the Welsh Government to bring forward this legislation without undue delay."

Crufts 2021: latest news

At the beginning of last month, the Kennel Club issued the following statement regarding Crufts 2021:

In light of recent government announcements, The Kennel Club has been discussing the holding of Crufts 2021 which is set to take place from March 11-14 at the NEC Birmingham.

The Kennel Club Board would like to reassure competitors, exhibitors and everyone involved in the dog world that it remains actively committed to holding the show next year. In particular, the Crufts team have been looking at different options for how Crufts 2021 might look. However, the most important aspect will be the safety of all those who attend and any possible negative impact that holding the event may have.

Vanessa McAlpine, Crufts Show Manager, commented: "The Crufts Committee and events team have been liaising with the NEC and others to discuss how to make it possible to hold Crufts safely next year, ensuring that there is minimal risk of the transmission of Covid-19 and assuming indoor events will be able to take place.

"It is inevitable that Crufts won't be quite the same as usual due to the pandemic and that the requirement to follow current government guidelines will have an impact on hall capacities and other logistical issues. As such, it will be necessary to make some alterations to the show to enable it to take place, as with any large event in this current climate. We hope to provide more information on this when we can. However within this continually changing climate, further details including the qualification, may not be released until later this year and we ask for your patience in these unprecedented times."

For up-to-date information on Crufts please go to www.crufts.org.uk. The Kennel Club will endeavour to make announcements as soon as it can to any changes to the show.

Events

The Kennel Club would like to advise and reassure competition organisers, exhibitors and competitors that our Sports Committees are working on solutions to help enable shows, competitions and other events to resume when Government guidance allows and the current restrictions are sufficiently reduced or relaxed. We are also actively seeking Government advice and clarification on guidance already issued. We are looking at the safety measures that may need to be put in place, together with any Kennel Club Regulations which may need to be amended or relaxed to enable competitions to resume. As soon as more information is available, our guidance will be issued. We are aware that everyone is keen to resume their dog-related activities as soon as it is practical to do so, but please bear with us as we work towards helping you to provide the safest possible environment to allow for this. The continued health, safety and security of all participants at Kennel Club events is of paramount importance.

Please note that these details are correct at time of going to print. For an up-to-date list please go to www.findadogshow.org.uk

Kennel Club Accreditation Scheme

www.kcai.org.uk

The KCAI Scheme offers its members the opportunity to gain a nationally-recognised vocational accreditation based on a robust standard set by the Kennel Club. It is the first and only scheme for dog training instructors and behaviourists that has achieved programme accreditation from City & Guilds, a globally-recognised benchmark of quality.

This section of the Kennel Club Journal is dedicated to KCAI Scheme members. It provides information on the resources available to members, announcements on newly awarded Kennel Club Accredited Instructors, and KCAI Scheme news and updates.

For more information on the KCAI Scheme, please visit: www.kcai.org.uk

The KCAI Team is available to provide you with support you may need to guide you through the accreditation application process.

If you would like the KCAI team to assist you, please let us know by emailing the KCAI team at kcai@thekennelclub.org.uk

ACCREDITATION ADVISER

For members who have successfully completed all of the online assessments and who are ready to apply for accreditation, our Accreditation Adviser is available to help you.
