Discover Dogs is set to return to the ExCeL London on 20-21 November 2021 to celebrate its 25th anniversary.

The event, which was first held in 1996, didn’t take place this year due to Covid-19, but it is hoped by the end of next year the event will be able to celebrate its silver anniversary in style.

Plans are still being worked on for how the event will look, but following the puppy boom that has taken place in 2020 it is hoped that the event will allow The Kennel Club to offer thousands of dog lovers the unique opportunity to meet and greet around 200 different pedigree breeds. It will also provide the opportunity to educate prospective dog owners on how to choose the right breed for them.

It is anticipated that other old favourites will also return to the show such as training displays, the Young Kennel Club ring and the many different canine competitions including the Good Citizen Dog Scheme Pre Beginner Stakes Southern semi-finals, and possibly the Junior Warrant semi-finals that usually take place at the event.

Discover Dogs provides something for everyone, from those involved within the canine world to those on their first step into the journey of owning a dog, and with trade stands selling anything and everything for dogs it provides the perfect place for some serious shopping!

KCAI Scheme accredited by City & Guilds again

The Kennel Club has been accredited by City & Guilds as meeting its quality assurance criteria and granted Accredited Programme status for the Kennel Club Accredited Instructors (KCAI) Scheme for the fourth year.

The purpose of the KCAI Scheme is to provide dog owners with a wide and accessible choice of dog training instructors and behaviourists who have proven specialist knowledge, skills and experience. The KCAI Scheme is the first and only scheme for dog training instructors and behaviourists that has achieved programme accreditation from City & Guilds, which is a globally-recognised benchmark of quality. The City & Guilds accredited programme enables the Kennel Club to demonstrate that the processes and delivery of the KCAI Scheme meets City & Guilds quality standards, ensuring that the programme content is always relevant and that its structure and support are of the highest standard.

Kathryn Mansfield, Kennel Club Secretary, said: “The fact that City & Guilds has once again granted us accreditation is very welcome news indeed in a very challenging year which has highlighted the very great importance of the companionship dogs bring to our lives and the need for responsible ownership.”

David Phillips, Managing Director of City & Guilds and ILM, said: “We are delighted to continue to quality assure the Kennel Club Accredited Instructors Scheme which is helping to further drive up the quality of Canine Care in the UK.”

“For further information on the KCAI Scheme, please visit www.kcai.org.uk and for a list of Kennel Club Accredited Instructors, please go to bit.ly/370kGBW.

All enquiries should be directed to email kcai@thekennelclub.org.uk.
Further to the press statement of 24 February 2020 announcing the resumption of the Judges Education Programme (JEP) in tandem with the traditional routes for judges approval to award CCs, the Kennel Club has introduced regulations to support the introduction of the JEP including judge requirements and eligibility as of 1 January 2021.

In line with these new regulations and as previously announced, breeds clubs will be required to appoint a Breed Education Coordinator (BEC); hold a Breed Appreciation Day (BAD) at least once every two years; and select and promote at least two supported entry open shows for its breed at general or group open shows each year.

From 1 January 2021, no one can judge unless they meet JEP Level 1 requirements (existing CC judges excluded). The exception to this is where a valid contract was in place before the 24 February 2020 press announcement and the appointment complies with Kennel Club Regulation F(1)20.b.

To be able to judge more than three classes of a breed (four if a puppy class is scheduled) at any show or any number of classes at a championship show without CCs, a judge must be listed on a breed club/council B list or above or meet Level 2 requirements. The criteria for breeds at Stud Book Band E have been rescinded. All breeds now have the same class number criteria.

Full requirements for JEP Levels can be found at www.thekennelclub.org.uk.jep.

Judges are reminded that on accepting an appointment they must ensure that their name is included on a relevant breed council/club judges list or that they meet the appropriate level of the JEP. In the case of the latter, judges are asked to keep records to support their JEP level.

The Kennel Club advises societies to use the following wording within future judging contracts: “In accepting this appointment I confirm that I comply with the requirements of Kennel Club Regulation F(1)20b or the Judges Education Programme (Breed Shows)”.

The new regulations will be published in due course. All enquiries should be directed to email judges.education@thekennelclub.org.uk

The Kennel Club would like to advise and reassure competition organisers, exhibitors and competitors that our Sports Committees are working on solutions to help enable shows, competitions and other events to resume when Government guidance allows and the current restrictions are sufficiently reduced or relaxed. We are also actively seeking Government advice and clarification on guidance already issued. We are looking at the safety measures that may need to be put in place, together with any Kennel Club Regulations which may need to be amended or relaxed to enable competitions to resume. As soon as more information is available, our guidance will be issued. We are aware that everyone is keen to resume their dog-related activities as soon as it is practical to do so, but please bear with us as we work towards helping you to provide the safest possible environment to allow for this. The continued health, safety and security of all participants at Kennel Club events is of paramount importance.

At its meeting, the Board approved the following amendments to Kennel Club breed standards from January 2021:

LAGOTTO ROMAGNOLI

Head and Skull
Head moderately broad. When viewed from above, the widest point is at the zygomatic arch. When viewed from the side, planes of muzzle and skull diverge slightly, Skull slightly convex, as wide as it is long and flattening at occiput and with medial-frontal furrow. Length of skull from occiput to stop slightly longer than from stop to nose. Slight, but evident, stop. Well-developed eyebrow arches. Muzzle strong and wedge-shaped, rather blunt in profile. In depth, almost equal to length. Nasal bone bridge straight, with large nose protruding slightly with wide, open nostrils. Jaws wide, large and powerful. Lips tight, forming a wide V-shape in front of the accessory when viewed from the front, covered with long, bristly whiskers.

Eyes
Fairly large, nearly round, set fairly well apart. Close fitting eyelids with rims in various shades of brown. Well-developed eyelashes. Eye colour ranges from chocolate to dark hazel and brown, depending on coat colour. Attentive, intelligent expression.

Ears
Moderately large in relation to the size of the head. Triangular, with slightly rounded tips, rather wide at the base and set slightly above the level of the eye. Hanging at rest, slightly raised when alert.

Forequarters
Shoulders muscular, moderately well laid back, long in blade and equal in length to upper arm. Elbows fairly close fitting. Forearms straight with stumpy, oval bone. Wrist follows vertical line from forearm and is finer boned, robust and mobile. Pasterns sloping, elastic and slender compared to forearm.

Body
Compact and strong. Length of back from point of shoulder to point of buttock equal to height at withers. Withers set slightly apart and placed just above the line of the back. Straight topline falls slightly withers to croup. Loins short and wide. Croup long, wide, muscular and slopes gently. Well-developed chest reaches down to the elbows. Chest rather narrow in front, broading behind the elbows. Slight tuck up. Skin thin, close fitting and without wrinkles.

Hindquarters
Powerful upper thigh long with well-developed musculature. Good bend of stifle; powerful upper thigh long with sturdy, oval bone. Wrist follows vertical line of forearm and is finer boned, robust and mobile. Tarsus long, wide, muscular and slopes gently. Well-developed hindquarters long, wide, muscular and slopes gently. Well-developed thigh long. Females slightly less arched.

Feet
Compact with strong, curved nails. Webbing between toes well developed. Front feet almost round. Rear pasterns thin and upright. Angulation slightly greater than in forequarters but without exaggeration.

Coat
Woolly and waterproof, rather rough on the surface forming very thick, ring shaped curls, with visible, waterproof undercoat. Curls evenly distributed all over the body except on the head where the curls are less tight, forming well-furred eyebrows, whiskers and beard. Cheeks covered with thick hair. On the ears, curls tend to be open but very wavy. The inner ear flap is covered with hair. Tail covered with woolly, bristly hair. The coat should evenly follow the line of the dog and may be longer on the head but must not obscure the eyes. The coat should be of a length that curls are evident and texture can be assessed. The correct presentation is natural, without styling, and in keeping with the rustic character of the breed.

Colour

(a) Those judges invited to judge must be selected in accordance with the rules of the Show Society and The Kennel Club Code of Best Practice for Judges as published from time to time and if required evidence of this must be forwarded to The Kennel Club.

(b) Judges so selected must at the time of accepting the invitation and at the time of the appointment be eligible to judge in accordance with Kennel Club Regulations.

c. No announcement may be made by a Show Society of any appointment until the judge has accepted the invitation and the Show Society has confirmed the appointment in writing to the judge.

(1) All applications for the approval to judge with Challenge Certificates, Groups, Best in Show, and Referees, must include both the nomination and the questionnaire (where required), and must be lodged by the show society with the Secretary of The Kennel Club at least 12 months prior to the date of the show on the form provided.

(2) Judges to award Challenge Certificates, at single breed, sub-group and general or group championship shows.

(a) There must be an interval of not less than 18 calendar months between the appointment of a judge to award Challenge Certificates to the same sex of the same breed.

h. Should any judge named in the schedule be unable to fulfil the specified appointment, another judge must be appointed who is eligible to do so. Where Challenge Certificates are available another judge must be appointed who has previously awarded Challenge Certificates in the breed/class or is listed at the appropriate Judges Education Programme Level. There must be an interval of not less than 18 calendar months between this appointment and a subsequent appointment to award Challenge Certificates to the same sex of the same breed. The show committee may similarly substitute a Judge for a Group or Best in Show at Championship Show provided that the Substitute Judge has been previously approved for, and judged, the same Group or Best in Show or is listed at the appropriate Judges Education Programme Level but who has not accepted an invitation to judge the same Group or Best in Show within the 9 calendar months following the show in question.

Such judges must be submitted to the Board for approval. The alteration should be notified to exhibitors if possible.
