The Kennel Club guidance on restarting shows and events

Following the Government's 'roadmap' announcements, The Kennel Club announced on April 13 that it will not be extending its previous recommendation to cancel future licensed events but supports a safe and phased return to licensed events. New guidance for clubs and societies which might be considering holding licensed shows and other events as lockdown restrictions are eased across the UK has been issued. Continued on page 3

In releasing this information, The Kennel Club is naturally mindful of the large loss of life caused by the pandemic over the past year and acknowledges that a certain proportion of people who normally attend Kennel Club events may feel apprehensive about when they should return. As always, the health and safety of all participants must remain a top priority.

Clubs and societies must of course follow Government and local restrictions and guidance at all times, and that these can and will vary depending on the Governments of England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales. Societies should also take into account where their exhibitors and other attendees may wish to travel from, and note any difference in the government guidance for these areas.

...the health and safety of all participants must remain a top priority

The new guidance offers a step-by-step guide to pre-event planning, focusing on an essential financial risk assessment which societies are strongly advised to conduct so that an informed decision whether to go ahead with an event can be made. A sample financial risk assessment document is available on The Kennel Club website at thekennelclub.org.uk/resumptionofevents (scroll down the page to the 'financial planning' tab). This document can be used and adapted to suit each type of show or competition.

The Kennel Club survey: 60% of competitors want events back as soon as possible, 97% within a year

An online survey recently carried out by The Kennel Club has revealed that 60 per cent of competitors want events to return as soon as possible.

In the same vein, 55 per cent of judges and 53 per cent of event organisers would also like to see shows and trials resume as soon as government regulations allow in relation to the Covid-19 pandemic.

Looking further ahead, an even more optimistic figure of 97 per cent of competitors said they would be happy to return to events within a year of lockdown easing. Similarly, 96 per cent of judges and 84 per cent of event organisers would like to return to their hobby within the same timeframe.

The survey was completed by a total of 8,036 people last month during the UK-wide lockdown. It was designed to gauge the views of respondents in relation to the prospect of the phased and safe return of licensed events.

In order to assess the views of the widest possible spectrum of those who participate in such events, details of the survey were emailed to more than 13,000 Kennel Club competitors and other 'stakeholders' such as judges, organisers of events, Young Kennel Club members, tradestand holders and spectators. The survey was also publicised via the canine press as well as across The Kennel Club's social media channels from where it was shared widely.

Please direct all enquiries about breed show regulations to breedshows@thekennelclub.org.uk For other canine activities, please contact wda@thekennelclub.org.uk Any queries relating to show dates should be sent to sass@thekennelclub.org.uk have been the most successful at Crufts in their pursuit to be Best in Show and as well as the latest news on dog breeding regulations in Scotland and Wales we hear about the Border Collie from Ceredigion who has become the world's most expensive working sheepdog after being sold for more than £27,000!

Simon Parsons reflects on the increase of breed registration figures from last year in his Viewpoint column, in health matters we invite Emily Hall, Anne Carter and Dan O'Neill to discuss heat-related illness (heatstroke) in dogs and how to keep your dog safe while exercising when the summer weather returns, Revd Bill King shares his thoughts on retirement as he stepped down from The Kennel Club Board of Directors in March and sadly leaves the Kennel Gazette editorial panel.

...We hear about the Border Collie who has become the world's most expensive working sheepdog

Revd Bill King was one of the few people to have served two stints on the Board. And our favourite dog walk this month is provided by Kevin Egan and his Pembroke Welsh Corgi walking group who take us for a stroll around the village of Latimer in Buckinghamshire.

This month it is the turn of the smallest breed in the world, the Smooth Coat Chihuahua, as seven judges choose their three favourite Smooth Coats they have judged in the ring in Judges' Choice and we look back at the mystery of this fascinating and feisty little dog's origins to activities it participates in today. We also share a select number of depictions featuring the breed from The Kennel Club Art Gallery and Valerie Foss of the Library and Gallery Panel.

Registered society AGMs and annual returns

In February 2021 the Board directed that registered societies may relax/suspend constitutional provisions, through its enactment of Regulation C5.e. In this way, societies may legitimately process routine business by adopting interim arrangements such as postal/online voting or remote meetings, as appropriate.

Whilst this was for six-month period relating to the processing of routine business usually dealt with at AGMs, this now been extended to 31 December 2021.

A guidance note for registered societies is available at bit.ly/2GJQgsX

This outlines how a registered society may process routine AGM business in a procedurally compliant way, notwithstanding the content of its constitution. The Kennel Club is confident that this route will assist the many societies that have been unable to hold AGMs.

Activities Health and Welfare Sub-Group

Despite Covid-19 effectively restricting many aspects of the canine activity world, the Activities Health and Welfare Sub-Group (AHWSG) remains committed to ensuring a cohesive and consistent approach to ensuring the implementation of best-practice for canine health and welfare in Kennel Club activities and disciplines. The sub-group continues to identify and consider areas within canine activities that deserve investigation.

While some activity-related research is ongoing at the moment, the AHWSG encourages interested parties to suggest specific areas of interest that could be considered from a canine activity health perspective. In the first instance, such areas can be relayed to the relevant committee, liaison council or working party and the activity/discipline representative can then present the subject at the next AHWSG meeting for consideration.

Dr Jacqueline Boyd, Chair of AHWSG, said: "Despite significant disruption to global canine events during the pandemic, health and welfare work and consideration continues. Now might be a perfect time to 'take stock' and consider if there are specific areas that merit research consideration from a health and welfare perspective. I'd urge anyone with such ideas to contact their relevant activity representative."

Enquiries regarding canine activities should be directed to wda@thekennelclub.org.uk

Young Kennel Club Summer Camp to return this year

The Young Kennel Club (YKC) is pleased to announce that its popular YKC Summer Camp will take place this year, following last year's event, which was held online due to Covid-19.

Open exclusively to YKC members aged from 7-16, the camp is a perfect opportunity for children and teenagers to enjoy a holiday with their dogs, whilst also keeping active, joining in with social events and taking part in plenty of training activities with their four-legged friends.

The YKC Summer Camp has been running since 1992 and was set for an action-packed return in 2020,

This year's camp will be held at Rutland showground in Oakham, 1-6 August the first in six years, but was sadly cancelled in its physical form in order to ensure the safety and security of participants, spectators, volunteers and staff.

Thankfully, this year's camp is set to return, based on the covid-19 guidelines, and will be held at Rutland showground in Oakham from Sunday 1 August – Friday 6 August. As well as reuniting the members, many of whom will have not seen each other in over a year, the week will also include the opportunity to practise a range of canine activities including agility, scent work, obedience and heelwork to music, as well as a full social schedule with team-building games, barbeques, a quiz night and a sports evening.

YKC members must have a parent or guardian on-site at all times, but all the family are welcome to enjoy the fun.

More information about the YKC, including membership and the summer camp, can be found at ykc.org.uk

Old English Sheepdog joins list of vulnerable breeds

One of Britain's most recognisable dog breeds, the Old English Sheepdog, has been classed as vulnerable by The Kennel Club for the first time ever, following a steep decline in the breed's popularity.

Known to many as the 'Dulux dog', a role for which it celebrate its 60th anniversary earlier this year, the Old English Sheepdog saw just 227 puppy registrations in 2020. Coincidentally, this is the lowest recorded number of annual puppy registrations for the breed since 1961, the year of the Dulux dog's debut, and comes despite last year seeing The Kennel Club's highest puppy registrations in ten years.

Following the first appearance of the breed as the paint brand's mascot, the subsequent two decades saw the numbers of Old English Sheepdogs steadily rise, peaking in 1979 when it was the ninth most popular breed in the UK, with nearly 6,000 registrations. Sadly, puppy registrations have since plummeted by 96 per cent, with a 28 per cent drop in the last year, against the 2019 figure.

Since 2009, the breed has been on The Kennel Club's 'At Watch' list, which monitors breeds with between 300-450 puppy registrations a year, but this is the first time it has entered the organisation's Vulnerable Native Breeds list – devised for those British and Irish native breeds which have fallen below 300 annual puppy registrations and could be at risk of disappearing from our streets and parks.

There are 32 Vulnerable Native breeds in total, with seven more 'At Watch'. To see the latest lists and learn more about these breeds, please visit The Kennel Club website at bit.ly/3ds93GV

Events

The Kennel Club would like to advise and reassure competition organisers, exhibitors and competitors that our Sports Committees are working on solutions to help enable shows, competitions and other events to resume when Government guidance allows and the current restrictions are sufficiently reduced or relaxed. We are also actively seeking Government advice and clarification on guidance already issued. We are looking at the safety measures that may need to be put in place, together with any Kennel Club Regulations which may need to be amended or relaxed to enable competitions to resume. As soon as more information is available, our guidance will be issued. We are aware that everyone is keen to resume their dog-related activities as soon as it is practical to do so, but please bear with us as we work towards helping you to provide the safest possible environment to allow for this. The continued health, safety and security of all participants at The Kennel Club events is of paramount importance.

We are currently still processing official cancellations so the following events are subject to change.

The Kennel Club Accredited Instructors Scheme

The Kennel Club Accredited Instructors (KCAI) scheme offers its members the opportunity to gain a nationally-recognised vocational accreditation based on a robust standard set by The Kennel Club. It is the first and only scheme for dog training instructors and behaviourists that has achieved programme accreditation from City & Guilds, a globally-recognised benchmark of quality.

This section of The Kennel Club Journal is dedicated to KCAI scheme members. It provides information on the resources available to members, announcements on newly awarded Kennel Club Accredited Instructors, and scheme news and updates.

For more information on The Kennel Club Accredited Instructor scheme, please visit www.kcai.org.uk

THE KENNEL CLUB ACCREDITED INSTRUCTOR TEAM

The team is available to provide you with support you may need to guide you through the accreditation application process.

If you would like the team to assist you, please let us know by emailing kcai@thekennelclub.org.uk

The accreditation adviser can provide you with the support you may need to guide you through the accreditation application and practical and oral assessment processes.

The Kennel Club Charitable Trust's sole purpose is to 'make a difference for dogs'. Since its inception in 1987, the Trust has awarded over £10 million in grants by funding a wide variety of work ranging from supporting research into canine diseases to welfare initiatives and the promotion of support dogs. The Kennel Club supports the Trust by providing all its administration, fundraising and marketing requirements. Therefore, every pound that is raised goes directly to the Trust ensuring that our canine companions and people within the world of dogs enjoy the maximum benefit. If you would like to support the Trust, there are a variety of ways to achieve this, either by postal donations, direct debit or standing order, debit or credit card, gift aid and legacy.
