The Kennel Club issues post-lockdown advice for dog owners

With Covid-19 restrictions having been eased further from May 17 and the relaxation of rules around overnight stays, indoor dining and socialisation, The Kennel Club has issued advice to help dog owners enjoy their newly found freedoms responsibly, alongside their four-legged friends.

Launched earlier this year to support responsible dog ownership as the UK began to open up after a year of restrictions, The Kennel Club's 'Paw-by-Paw Guide' provides information and advice on exploring further afield, travelling and staycations, and planning dog-friendly adventures, as the country continues to open up.

Mirroring the four nations' plan to ease lockdown, the guide aims to help the UK's much-loved canine companions to adjust as normality begins to resume and advise owners as they re-discover the wider world with their dog, after months of staying at home. It includes tips on walking in the countryside, guidance on navigating dog-friendly establishments and warm weather advice, including if you're travelling or going away with your four-legged friend, to ensure dogs are safe and comfortable wherever they go.

The 'Paw-by-Paw Guide' includes expert advice on getting your dog used to being around other people, dogs and animals, navigating certain situations and environments, as well as how to find dog-friendly holidays and places to visit, so owners can make future plans with their dogs as we enter the third stage of the Government's roadmap out of lockdown: thekennelclub.org.uk/pawbypaw

The Kennel Club urges swift action on shock collar ban

The Kennel Club has written to Zac Goldsmith, Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (DEFRA) Minister, to urge swift action to implement a ban on the use of electric shock collars in England, following a recent Court of Appeal judgment last which dismissed the appeal of the Electronic Collar Manufacturers Association and Petsafe Ltd.

The outcome of the legal challenge, which had previously delayed DEFRA from bringing about any legislative action, saw the appeal from the Electric Collar Manufacturers Association and Petsafe Ltd thrown out, as the Government presented evidence to demonstrate that electric shock collars can have a detrimental effect on the welfare of dogs. This ruling was a crowning victory in the case against electric shock collars last week after the Government also announced a new Action Plan for Animal Welfare. This flagship plan aims to ensure the UK is leading the way in animal welfare and includes a ban on the use of electric shock collars, a move which has been long-campaigned for by The Kennel Club. The Government's intentions in this direction was also outlined in the Queen's Speech.

Research funded by DEFRA demonstrated that electronic collars can have a detrimental effect on the welfare of dogs by causing them unnecessary harm and suffering, with 25 per cent of dogs trained with shock collars showing signs of stress.

The use and sale of electric shock collars is currently not prohibited in England, with Wales being the only nation with regulations in place which prevent their use. In Scotland, there is guidance against the use of shock collars, but The Kennel Club is lobbying Holyrood to explicitly ban the devices via legislation.

More information on The Kennel Club's campaign against the use of electric shock collars and what dog-lovers can do to support the ban across the UK is available at thekennelclub.org.uk/banshockcollars

The Kennel Club welcomes Pet Theft Taskforce

The Kennel Club is urging the public to back a crackdown on pet theft, as committed by the UK Government in its Action Plan for Animal Welfare. The creation of a new Pet Theft Taskforce was recently announced by the Government, alongside a number of other significant legislative proposals to support better animal welfare.

The Pet Theft Taskforce will undertake research and gather evidence to understand the scale of the issue and will make clear recommendations on ways to improve the situation across the nation.

To enable the pet-loving public to share their views and play its part in this crackdown on pet theft, The Kennel Club has produced a downloadable template letter – helping owners to raise their concerns with their MP and to spur Government to change the law.

Dr Ed Hayes, Head of Public Affairs at The Kennel Club, said: “We warmly welcome the Government’s announcement of the Pet Theft Taskforce and their commitment to addressing this issue. The Kennel Club is calling for the Government to ensure that longer, more proportionate sentences are available for those guilty of this deeply upsetting crime.

“We are urging anyone who wishes to see further action on this issue to download our template letter, which is available on our website, and join us in calling for a change in the law for the sake of the nation’s pets.”

The downloadable template letter, advice on preventing dog theft and further information on The Kennel Club’s campaign is available on the organisation’s website thekennelclub.org.uk/dogtheft

The Kennel Club welcomes welfare commitments cited in Queen’s Speech

The Kennel Club has welcomed the animal welfare commitments cited in the recent Queen’s Speech.

Commenting on the legislation and action plan outlined, Dr Ed Hayes, Head of Public Affairs at The Kennel Club, said: “We are delighted that the Government is looking to prioritise, improve and refine legislation to govern animal welfare, and that this will sit high on the agenda during the next Parliament.

“Reform in this area has cross-party backing, as well as much support from the animal-loving British public, and today’s speech suggests this is going to be kicked into action. 2020 has been a year like no other and the rise in pet ownership during the pandemic has brought dog health and welfare to the forefront, and we must work together to ensure standards are strengthened.

“As we await further details of the commitments outlined, we look forward working closely with MPs to support plans and identify opportunities to ‘build back better’ following the pandemic - for the sake of our four-legged friends - as well as the strategy and opportunities related to the EU exit.”

Via its action plan, the Government also announced its intentions to crack down on puppy smuggling and illegal imports. The importing of young puppies into the UK, often illegally, raises animal welfare and exploitation concerns, including transporting conditions, puppy farming, and illegal smuggling.

Further information about The Kennel Club’s campaigns and lobbying activity can be found at www.thekennelclub.org.uk/campaigns and details about DEFRA’s Action Plan for Animal Welfare are available at gov.uk/government/publications/action-plan-for-animal-welfare

Events

The Kennel Club would like to advise and reassure competition organisers, exhibitors and competitors that our Sports Committees are working on solutions to help enable shows, competitions and other events to resume when Government guidance allows and the current restrictions are sufficiently reduced or relaxed. We are also actively seeking Government advice and clarification on guidance already issued. We are looking at the safety measures that may need to be put in place, together with any Kennel Club Regulations which may need to be amended or relaxed to enable competitions to resume. As soon as more information is available, our guidance will be issued. We are aware that everyone is keen to resume their dog-related activities as soon as it is practical to do so, but please bear with us as we work towards helping you to provide the safest possible environment to allow for this. The continued health, safety and security of all participants at The Kennel Club events is of paramount importance.

The Kennel Club Liaison Council Elections

Does your club want to have a bigger say in how your hobby is run?
Does it want to contribute more to promoting the general improvement of dogs?
Does it want to see its ideas acted upon?
Does it want to become part of the solution to issues in the dog world?

Your club should then consider nominating a representative to one of The Kennel Club Liaison Councils.

The Kennel Club Liaison Councils play an important role in formulating Kennel Club policy and enhancing The Kennel Club's strategic objectives across every canine activity.

Representatives should be actively involved within their discipline by way of competing, judging, organising and/or officiating at shows/trials and events. Your club's elected representative to a Council will be responsible for representing the views of your region, breed or activity and for putting forward proposals on your club's behalf to enhance the future of your hobby. It's a responsible position and the representative's responsibility will be to regularly canvas your club and others in your area or breed to gather views and ideas, research their viability and then represent them at Council meetings once or twice a year. Dedicated representatives ensure their 'constituency's' views are brought forward for debate either through regional meetings and/or direct contact with clubs and societies and individuals at events. Representatives should be willing to commit to at least one or two meetings per year, more if they are elected onto a Working Party or Committee. Council proposals often result in fundamental changes in Kennel Club policy and The Kennel Club values the important work the Councils do and the opportunity to engage directly with those dedicated individuals involved on the hobby on a daily basis.

There are 6 liaison councils:

- Shows Council (regional representation for societies which hold breed shows)
- Breeds Council (individual breed representation)
- Field Trials Council
- Working Trials Council
- Obedience Council
- Agility Council

To become a representative on a Council you must first be nominated by a suitable registered society. All eligible registered societies are encouraged to nominate suitable representatives to make sure that their opinions are heard and that they can make a direct contribution to formulating policy in the future.

Please be aware that a ballot may be required should more nominations be received than there are positions available. If this should occur all relevant clubs will be notified and asked for their vote on the ballot.

Representatives are elected for a period of three years and the current term of office of all Kennel Club Liaison Council representatives ends on 31 December 2021. Therefore the process for election for the next term of office (January 2022 – December 2024) commences now.

The Kennel Club Charitable Trust's sole purpose is to 'make a difference for dogs'. Since its inception in 1987, the Trust has awarded over £10 million in grants by funding a wide variety of work ranging from supporting research into canine diseases to welfare initiatives and the promotion of support dogs. The Kennel Club supports the Trust by providing all its administration, fundraising and marketing requirements. Therefore, every pound that is raised goes directly to the Trust ensuring that our canine companions and people within the world of dogs enjoy the maximum benefit. If you would like to support the Trust, there are a variety of ways to achieve this, either by postal donations, direct debit or standing order, debit or credit card, gift aid and legacy.
