'Be Puppywise' campaign launched to urge responsible puppy buying and breeding

As new research shows almost three in 10 puppy buyers spend less than a day researching their dog and where to get them from.

On 21 August, The Kennel Club launched its nationwide 'Be Puppywise' campaign, following new research which shows that a quarter (25%) of puppy buyers won't travel more than an hour for their puppy and almost three in 10 (29%) spend less than a day researching their decision and breeder.

The research, carried out as part of the organisation's 2024 campaign, shows that today's convenience-driven puppy buying behaviour is having dramatic consequences for dog welfare, with more than one in four (28%) puppies feared to have originated from a puppy farm – increasing sharply to nearly two in five (40%) for those bought based on little research.

Amongst owners who spent less than a day researching, almost two in three (62%) experienced complications – including their puppy developing unexpected health or behavioural issues – and 39% faced unexpectedly high financial costs to take care of their dog's health.

Further, as part of this culture of instant gratification, The Kennel Club found that nearly half (48%) of owners who didn't travel more than one hour for their pup said convenience was a factor, and looking back on their puppy buying experience, more than half (56%) didn't see their puppy interacting with their mum and littermates, and 77% weren't asked about their suitability for dog ownership by the breeder.

Nationwide, the research showed that a quarter (26%) of puppy buyers admit that they couldn't spot a rogue breeder or puppy selling scam.

"These worrying statistics show the devastating impact of convenience culture on puppy welfare and how absolutely essential it is that puppy buyers do their homework to avoid being fooled by rogue 'traders'," comments Bill Lambert, Kennel Club spokesperson.

"It's important to say that breeders who health test their dogs can and do make it easier for owners to find a well-bred puppy, rather than being duped by rogue traders who operate for profit, with no concern for a pup's health, welfare or future.

"We urge caring, responsible breeders to make use of the various tools available to them before breeding and adopt good breeding practices. And as part of our 'Be Puppywise' campaign, which is all about raising awareness of responsible puppy buying and ownership with the public, we're discounting our DNA Testing Services to make it easier for puppy buyers to find those good breeders who prioritise dog health and welfare."

The Kennel Club DNA Testing Services has been developed so breeders can make informed decisions to lower the risk of producing puppies affected by known health conditions. It offers an opportunity to remove such disease-causing genes from a breed's gene pool in a responsible manner and for breeders to have a genuine and positive impact on the health of future generations of dogs, in an easy, accessible and cost-effective way. Those who use the service are also contributing to driving further understanding of canine genetics and disease, and the development of dog health initiatives, with all data and profits reinvested into research as part of The Kennel Club's mission of making a positive difference for dogs and their owners.

Launch of new regional support network

The Kennel Club is establishing a new regional network to provide clubs and societies with a single point of contact and to better support those involved in the organisation of dog activities across the UK.

This marks a significant step forward in how The Kennel Club will support clubs and societies and offers a range of benefits which include:

- Clearer points of contact, making it easier for organisers to access the support they need
- Dedicated regional advisors who will provide customised guidance and resources, ensuring that everyone receives the support they require
- New communication channels and support systems which will improve engagement between The Kennel Club and the organisers
- Valuable resources, guidance, and networking opportunities for clubs and societies involved in organising dog activities.

The regions will be based upon geographic areas and market size, and will allow for proactive support and communication with Kennel Club advisors being responsible for the account management and operational needs of all clubs and societies that are allocated to their region.

Helen Kerfoot, Chief Operating Officer (Canine Events) at The Kennel Club, commented: “We are excited to be announcing this new way of working. We understand the concerns and feelings that there needs to be more support from The Kennel Club to its customers, who are our ‘grassroots’ and play a pivotal role within the world of dogs. It is hoped that this system will help to streamline our services, making them more efficient, effective and accessible, strengthen the relationship between The Kennel Club and those valued volunteers in canine clubs and societies, and provide a greater understanding so we’re able to better provide a more personalised service to clubs and societies.

“As well as the positive impact for clubs and societies, we also hope that the improvement in access to resources and support that this network provides will better support the dog community, for those who volunteer and offer their time selflessly for dogs.”

The Kennel Club is currently recruiting and training new team members. When appointed, regional advisors will be in contact to introduce themselves and provide contact details to clubs and societies across the UK.

The Kennel Club seeks puppy buyer feedback

The Kennel Club is launching the first phase of a project to gather feedback from puppy buyers about their Kennel Club buying experience.

The feedback form will enable The Kennel Club to gradually gather insights directly from puppy buyers about their experiences, which will ultimately help with building tailored support and education for breeders and puppy buyers.

The questions are designed to build a picture about breeder behaviour and support provided to puppy buyers. Feedback will cover provision of a puppy pack and puppy contract, whether they received relevant health and registration certificates and pedigree. It also asks whether the puppy was vaccinated and vet checked and whether the pup was seen in its home and microchipped prior to sale.

The puppy feedback feature is part of the wider registrations review project, which aims to improve good practice amongst the full spectrum of breeders who register with The Kennel Club. Other steps that have recently been taken include the launch of a free puppy pack and engagement with the breeding community about a Health Standard, which will provide clear, evidence-based guidance for all breeders and buyers about health testing priorities in different breeds.

Bill Lambert, Health, Welfare and Breeder Services Executive, said: “We want to give the best possible support to breeders who register with us, and ensure buyers have a positive puppy buying experience.

“To achieve this, it is important that we gain insight into the level of service being delivered by our breeder community. We will gather this information for three months prior to reviewing the feedback, and we will then be able to shape our next steps, which may include tailoring our education and support initiatives for breeders in relation to these areas.

“This is just one part of the wider registrations project, which aims to provide guidance and support to breeders and clearer signposting to puppy buyers about good practice. We want to support both breeders and puppy buyers now and in the future, based on knowledge and insights and this is just one step in this direction.”

YKC Camp returned to Rutland for 80 young dog lovers

Maisie and Luna

© Emily &amp; Amber Moores / The Kennel Club

Rutland Showground was transformed for a week as more than 80 young dog lovers from the Young Kennel Club descended on the venue, with their four-legged-friends in tow, to take part in a week of training, socialising and fun with friends as the annual YKC Summer Camp returned to the venue for a fourth consecutive year.

Held from 28 July – 2 August, the Camp included the opportunity to brush up on skills and training across a range of canine activities, including agility, hoopers, handling and heelwork to music, as well as plenty of social activities and a packed educational programme.

“...all the activities have been really fun so far”

Many of those attending were returners from previous years, attesting to how popular the week is for members, but there was also plenty who were coming to Camp for the first time.

One such YKC member was 15-year-old Maisie Allenby, who has been with the Young Kennel Club since she was six, and was attending alongside her Dandie Dinmont Terriers, Mildred and Luna. Maisie commented: “This week I’m most looking forward to being with friends and spending the nights here because all the activities have been really fun so far.

Speaking of being in the YKC, Maisie added: “My favourite things are being able to do handling, but also the community in it, and all the friends that I’ve made.”

AMENDMENTS TO BREED STANDARDS

At its recent meeting the Board approved the following amendments:

BOLOGNESE

General Appearance Small white square toy dog, compact outline and distinctive coat.

Head and Skull Wide flat skull. Nose to stop slightly shorter than from stop to occiput. Definite stop. Nose large, black.

Ears Set on high, long, well coated, carried away from head giving a broad appearance to head. (Amendment in bold)

Feet Oval, black pads. Black nails desirable. (Amendment in bold)

Tail Set on at level of croup carried loosely and curved over back. Well feathered.

Gait Brisk, parallel movement, not close front or rear. Ambling highly undesirable.

Coat Long, flocked without curl covering entire head and body. Shown in natural state without obvious trimming.

Colour Pure White without markings, except in puppies under 12 months old after which not even simple shading. Lips, eye rims and nose black. Black nails desirable.

(Deletion struck through, amendments underlined)

FRENCH BULLDOG

Body Cobby, muscular and well rounded with deep, wide brisket and ribs well sprung. Strong back with gentle rise over the loin, rounding off over the croup. Good 'cut up'. The body while broader at the shoulders should narrow slightly beyond the ribs to give definition to the relatively short, thick, strong, muscular loin.

(Amendment underlined)

KOREAN JINDO

Colour Red in various shades from deepest red to pale fawn; may have fainter markings on muzzle, cheeks, chest, belly and back.

White: may have gold tinges on ears and legs.

Black and tan: tan markings restricted to spot over each eye, cheeks, inside of ears, legs and tail.

Black

Wolf grey

Brindle

Any other colour or combination of colours unacceptable.

(Insertion underlined)

PORTUGUESE POINTER

Hindquarters Broad and muscular. Gently sloping croup. Well-developed first and second thigh. Moderate bend of stifle, hocks well let down and parallel when viewed from behind.

(Amendment underlined)

The Kennel Club AGM and SGM report

The Kennel Club held its Annual General Meeting and a Special General Meeting on 11 June 2024 at Friends House, 173-177 Euston Road, London.

The Chairman, Mr A Allcock OBE, chaired the meeting. He advised that Mrs A White had stood down from standing as a Director due to ill health and that he had written on behalf of the members to thank her for her service.

The Chairman explained that ballots would be used for many items with a show of hands used only when deemed appropriate. He advised that the postal and proxy votes received in advance of the meeting had been counted by the independent scrutineers, Mi-Voice, who would also oversee the counting of votes at the meeting.

The Chairman advised that there would be two separate meetings: the Annual General Meeting and a Special General Meeting, which was required as there were proposals for special resolutions to amend the Articles of Association.

1. The Chairman opened the meeting at 11.30am.

Before continuing with the agenda, the Chairman reported that the following members had died since the last meeting: Honorary Life Members: Dr R Birts, Mr J Bishop, Mr D Paton, Mrs I Terry; Members: Mr N Bryce-Smith, Mr GB Carter, Mr D Evans, Mr J Farrant, Mr I Ferris, Mrs S Garner (Shows), Miss J Gordon, Mr K Holroyd, Mr P Jinman, Mr M John, Miss L Lewis, Mr C Muirhead, Mr P Newman, Mrs J Norris, Mrs V Phillips, Mr D Ray, Mr H Richards, Mr S Roberts, Mrs M Towers. The members stood in their memory.

2. The members received the report of the Annual General Meeting held on 13 June 2023 and published in the September 2023 issue of The Kennel Club Journal.
3. The Chairman advised that there had been no notification of items arising from the 2023 Annual General Meeting.
4. The Chairman then moved to item 4a – to receive a report from the Board in accordance with the Articles of Association of The Kennel Club Limited (Article 41.3.1).

The Chairman gave the following report:

'Before I give a report on the Club's activities over the past year, I would like to reiterate that this is an important meeting where some significant matters are going to be decided. So, thank you again for attending and being part of this chapter.

Due to the substantial agenda, we held two online sessions a couple of weeks ago for members and we would like to take this opportunity to thank those who attended and raised questions for us to address. We were pleased to get feedback on the agenda items, particularly the proposals on registration fee increases and the future implementation of our transformation programme. We covered some of this in detail at the online sessions and we will be providing more information today, and emphasising the importance of financial sustainability as we build for the future.

At the online sessions it was highlighted that our most important and necessary ask is for an increase in registration fees. Having the members' support for this is absolutely essential, to further stabilise and improve The Kennel Club's financial resilience in the short term and to support our areas of work, which currently do not break even or generate a profit. Indeed, if we do not receive your support, we will suffer a serious adverse effect on business and will need to come to you again, to decide what we stop doing.

We hope that those who attended the online meetings felt that these sessions were of benefit – they were certainly important for the directors and executives to receive feedback. Following these meetings, we did register the concerns regarding the dress code changes and these will be addressed in more detail when we come to that item on the agenda.

We hope that members have been pleased with the events and activities that the Club has provided this year so far. As ever, our talented Club staff, alongside our new Club Manager, Ralph Megerle, who I hope many of you will meet soon, have been busy. We continue to enjoy our breed club lunches which always prove to be very popular, as well as other events such as a one-off lunch hosted by Clare Balding in February and a behind-the-scenes Royal Opera House tour last month. Last year, we brought back the popular Chairman's Cocktail party and later this month there will be the return of our Wimbledon lunches, which I hope some of you will be able to enjoy. It is your Club, and any further suggestions for events or ways we can help improve our services are welcome. Our members' Facebook page continues to be well received, as is the monthly members' round-up email.

We continue with our members' lounges at shows, following the positive feedback and request for more engagement. Having visited several shows in the last year, the next members' lounge will be at Paignton. The lounges not only provide a space to break away from the crowds and relax, but also to engage with the staff team about our work and future direction. Hearing your views and insights and asking questions face-to-face is important to us.

The highlight for the Club last year was of course the opportunity to celebrate our 150th anniversary at Buckingham Palace. It was a unique and unparalleled occasion for the Club, thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by all who attended. This was a one-off expense, and one we felt was justified and deserved by all those who have given so much and are so proud of the milestone the club has reached. This of course also demonstrated the importance that that royal heritage has for The Kennel Club in its 150th year. I was therefore extremely honoured and privileged to be able to announce last month that His Majesty the King will be The Kennel Club's new Patron, continuing in the footsteps of his mother, Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, who was Patron throughout her reign.

The Kennel Club has been honoured with royal patronage since it began in 1873 so we are delighted that His Majesty the King will continue the tradition of royal support for The Kennel Club and help us in our mission in making a positive difference for dogs and their owners. The King's passion and affection for dogs is clear for all to see and his support for our organisation's work is greatly appreciated.

Last year, in our 150th year, we of course were also honoured to receive the Royal Prefix. We would like to ensure this is now reflected in our name going forward and are seeking members' approval before we apply to register the new company name.

Talking of our heritage, I must at this time mention our flagship annual event, Crufts. Our Crufts Chairman, Tom Mather, will give more detail on this later in the meeting but I just wanted to add that anybody who had the pleasure of attending this year's show will be able to testify that the positivity and joy was palpable and I would like to take the opportunity to thank Tom, the Crufts committee, and of course the events team and staff at The Kennel Club, who all work extremely hard to pull this great event together.

We have so much to be proud of, but we must not forget that there is, as always, a lot to do. We need to be relevant and at the forefront of the dog world for the next 150 years. The Kennel Club as a whole, from its staff and directors to its members, need to work together for the future of the Club. We all share the desire to do more, but we need everyone's support to enable The Kennel Club to operate in a way that is responsive and efficient, and to ensure it can grow in the future.

Our members have unmatched experience and know-how, and ultimately as dog enthusiasts have already made a significant contribution to the world of dogs. You are all vital to The Kennel Club and pivotal to these efforts and we thank you for all your contributions. We hope, with the support of the membership and by working together we can help The Kennel Club grow, improve our financial situation and, together, make a positive difference for dogs and their owners.

I would like to thank our staff colleagues and directors who have been unrelenting in their commitment to the review of our organisation and the mapping out of our future. My continued thanks, on behalf of the directors and myself, go to Mark Beazley and his team, whose vision, leadership, and dedication continue to be key to what we have been able to achieve, and what we will be set up to achieve in the future, as an organisation.

Before I pass over to Mark, I would like to thank Friends House. This venue is home to the central offices of the Quakers in Britain – an organisation with the values of equality, peace, truth, justice and simplicity. Qualities which we at The Kennel Club wholeheartedly support.'

5. Under item 4b, the Chief Executive, Mr M Beazley gave the following report:

'Thank you, Tony, and thank you to everybody for making the effort to come here today. As you have heard, this is a significant AGM, which, with your approval, may be our last as The Kennel Club before we have the honour of formalising our change of name to The Royal Kennel Club. The potential new name represents two things: it respects our heritage whilst asking us to make a change and it sits at the heart of our identity, challenging us to answer, 'what is The Royal Kennel Club', and in this sense, it is both timely and symbolic.

We have, as you all know, for the last two years, been on a path to build upon what we have, but also transform the way that we work so that we can safeguard the future of our historic Club for dogs and their owners now, and for the generations who will follow. At the heart of this process has been the question of our identity and we delved deep to gain an understanding – from breeders, puppy buyers, members and dog sports enthusiasts – about 'who is The Kennel Club?' What did they think and need from us, and we found that for many people, we were not seen as relevant. We know that to maintain our place in the world we need to address this. We did and do a lot, but we need to make it clear to the outside world, and to ourselves, what it is that we particularly stand for, and to ensure that our actions and products and services consistently support those aims and serve people's needs and expectations.

The Kennel Club AGM and SGM report

For many others, we were told that the experience of interacting with us was seen as frustrating, slow and confusing. Despite all the positives we achieve, we were an organisation that had not changed or evaluated its place in a changing world; a world where new technology and slick processes help businesses provide their services in more efficient ways. As a result of this, and because we asked difficult questions about what this all means for our future financial sustainability, we collectively agreed that action needed to be taken.

I won't repeat now our strategic aims, which embody the answers to the question about who we are, and which must underlie all of the work that we do, but in summary, we agreed to be an organisation that more breeders and puppy buyers seek out as relevant to them. That will make a positive difference in their lives and in the lives of their dogs; and they will come to us armed with the knowledge that we will provide services to them in a modern, efficient and accessible way. We agreed to make changes that will help ensure that we can better support those providing activities, events and dog training on the ground and that our members, existing and those to come, have a great experience. And we agreed to ensure we have financial sustainability and security, to underpin everything that we do.

With such an ambitious, and essential, programme of work, it is only right that members, both today and during the online sessions that we held two weeks ago, come to us with questions, and we welcome these. A process like this should not be imposed upon an organisation. It is not one that can be conducted in ivory towers and behind closed doors, without genuine engagement. We collectively agreed to make these changes and we have taken every step possible to engage, to be transparent and to take the membership and all those we work with, along with us. This is our Club, and we are all part of this opportunity to secure our place in the future.

Your questions to us have been in three main areas, which we will address today. You have rightly wanted to know what has been achieved – what steps have been taken this year and what have been the results? You have asked what we have done to secure ourselves financially whilst this work has been going on, and in the face of rising inflation and financial pressures? Where have we cut costs and raised revenue? You have wanted to know why a registrations fee increase is being proposed? Future steps – you have wanted to understand how the work we have been doing will transform how we operate in the future, how will it change our financial picture and secure our place in the hearts and minds of dog owners, breeders and enthusiasts, and what the next steps will be.

So, what has been achieved? I want to share some of our significant achievements this year, that tie back into our aims as a Club. This isn't the sum total of everything that we have done – a lot is in the pipeline – but there have been some significant achievements that are making a difference for dogs and their owners already.

Firstly, if we are talking about making a positive difference, health must be at the centre of all of the decisions that we take, and we must mark clear lines in the sand about what is and is not acceptable to us, as an organisation, whether registering, showing or partaking in activities with dogs. It is also essential, within the realms of what we define as acceptable, that we help people to make ever better choices about the dogs that they breed, buy and reward.

One step taken this year was introducing the requirement for all brachycephalic dogs entering Crufts to have a Respiratory Function Grading (RFG) scheme assessment before entering the show. We also disallowed entry for dogs with a grade three assessment, who are clinically affected by and will show visible signs of respiratory distress. Whilst we strongly believe no such dog would be rewarded through our efforts on judges' training, which will continue to evolve, this sends a strong message to breeders and the outside world that we take our responsibilities seriously.

That there is a need for us to take a responsible lead for dog health is undeniable, particularly given the keen focus on this by the government here and by those on the continent, and the restrictions and bans we have seen on breeding and showing dogs. To this end we launched a brachycephalic report in Westminster and Holyrood this year, to MPs and MSPs. We also saw a record number of MPs attend Crufts, including the Secretary of State for DEFRA, who were impressed with our vet checks, and free on-site RFG assessments. More can always be done, and we know that the number of dogs taking the RFG assessment and health tests generally needs to increase and we need to help encourage that. One of the steps we have taken to help increase uptake of the scheme is to support the training of another 57 vets as assessors, building up the veterinary infrastructure so that it can meet puppy buyer demand.

And of course, puppy buyer demand, and ensuring that puppy buyers know what responsible breeding looks like, is never far from our minds. Our annual Be PuppyWise campaign, to demonstrate to the puppy buying public and breeders the consequences of bad breeding and buying choices, was launched across the major national press titles and on breakfast TV, reaching 12.6 million people through broadcast and print press alone, and with an advertising value equivalent of almost £400,000.

We also ran a series of webinars that saw 10,000 viewers attending the nine sessions both live and on YouTube. 98 percent said they would recommend them to others, confirming this as an effective way to expand our reach and impact for health.

We truly have continued to be a world-leading powerhouse in the field of pedigree health research, researching and collating over 4,000 scientific papers, which give us a robust and completely unique foundation for developing tools and action plans to help tackle health issues in breeds. These plans are helping us and breeders to make informed choices about how to tackle and prioritise health issues. Difficult choices have been made along the way, with a move away from generalised funding at the canine genetics centre and towards investment in specific prioritised projects, but that is part and parcel of our greater, more robust and scientific commitment to health.

Finally, one of the key outputs of our deep understanding about dog health is the development of our health testing products. We have expanded our DNA testing services, which enable breeders to test for a range of conditions with a single, cost-effective mouth swab, and in 2023 we launched 166 new testing products for more than 90 breeds.

One of the other key undertakings this year has been to ensure that the experience of breeders, judges, puppy buyers and all those who interact with us, improves. We have prioritised the work that sits at the very foundations of what we do. That work includes improving our processes, our technology and our organisational design. So, what does this mean for you and those who use our services?

Certificates and awards – one of our priorities has been to maintain and improve turnaround times, which remain at three days for registration certificates and improved processes for awards have been put in place, with all 2023 certificates now being issued.

Automated technologies – we have automated a number of processes, including 'Change of Ownership' online and the introduction of a 'live chat' function for Petlog, giving our customers a more efficient and quick way of interacting with us.

Find a Club – for those who show and take part in activities, we have continued to focus on website developments and although there is still more to do, this year we relaunched 'Find a Club' on our website, which has 74% approval ratings.

Helping shows – we also made improvements to the secretaries' online portal for clubs. This follows other changes which have included the second year of our trial in removing benching requirements at shows, in response to ongoing financial pressures.

Customer feedback rating – the changes we have been making are reflected in our improved customer TrustPilot scores, which continue to be high: Kennel Club registration, Pet Insurance and Petlog have approval ratings between 4.6 and 4.7 out of 5. These scores reflect that we are providing a quality and valued service, one that must continue, and our investment in this area is paying off.

So, we know that we are improving our services for our customers and continuing to provide health and education to help dogs, but where does this all leave us today in terms of our financial goals? Many of the achievements in the past year are part of a longer-term process to transform our business, which we will touch on shortly, and results are not delivered overnight. But in some instances, we are already seeing financial upsides. From the revenue that is coming through from our health testing products through to the cost savings made through digital changes.

This has been welcomed because as you know, we are in a difficult financial climate. Despite all that we are trying to do now and for the future of our Club, we are running an organisation with large areas of subsidised activities, in health, membership services and activities and events, against the backdrop of the rising cost of inflation. We have done all that we can to mitigate against the impact of this. Cost-cutting measures have been taken and revenue raising measures have been put in place, both of which Jannine will talk about further, but we are still making an operating loss.

The Kennel Club AGM and SGM report

We have proposed today that registration fees should be raised for only the second time since 2019, and raising prices is a really important part of the overall picture for enabling us to build a healthier future. Registration fees are critical to helping us run our business, including the substantial areas that make no money but that we value so much, but up until now we have not sufficiently adjusted our primary income source in line with the rising inflationary costs of doing business. Despite a registration increase in 2018, our pricing structure has, up until this proposal, been trailing behind ever rising costs. In real terms, that means a loss of £2.22million in registrations income which could have been made over that time frame if we had been keeping up inflationary increases. What we are seeing, with our bottom line today, is the impact this has taken over the years. The stark reality is that, without a registration fee increase to adjust the balance and offset the losses over the years, difficult choices will have to be made about how we make up the shortfall.

And, of course, inflationary pressures are just one area that will take its toll on us financially. We also know that the way people interact with businesses is changing. From live chat and automated services to the expectation of a quick turnaround, people want services delivered efficiently and in ever-evolving ways. And as the crossbreed and non-registered market continues to grow, we need to not be pinning our hopes on a future characterised by cost-cutting and leaning on reserves in hard times. We need to not let our relevance fade, but to cement our place in the hearts and minds of current and potential breeders and puppy buyers, so that they 'think puppy, think Kennel Club' in the future.

So, what is next? The transformation work we have been undertaking and will continue in 2024 and beyond is so that we can change this picture around. One key component here is the work that we have been doing on our registrations model, which accounts for around half of our income. We want to ensure that Kennel Club registration carries clear and tangible value and meaning to breeders and puppy buyers in the future. One of our aims is to embed the best elements of the Assured Breeders scheme into the registrations model for all dogs. We want to encourage breeders and buyers to prioritise health and wellbeing and to ensure that we provide the resources and motivation to assist with doing that. We will announce more about these changes in the coming weeks and months. In the next few weeks, we will be launching a digital puppy pack, which will provide a range of essential information about puppies collected from a breeder's online account that will benefit both breeders and new owners.

We need to complement what Kennel Club registration means, with what people see and experience when interacting with us online. We will be looking at our website and Find a Puppy, to ensure that puppy buyers feel clear about what they are buying and are armed with the best possible information, adding value to their experience of going to a Kennel Club registered breeder and, for breeders, delivering them an informed and engaged potential buyer.

This year, we have been diligently looking at our organisational design and we have recently proposed changes, and new roles for the organisation, so that we can operate in a more digital, customer-centric and sustainable way for the future. To go alongside that, we have also proposed changes that will reduce duplication, remove inefficiencies across teams and improve both clarity around roles within departments and collaboration between departments, so that we can make decisions and get things done more quickly and effectively, creating significant improvement in how we operate.

A great amount of care has gone into getting this right. Sadly, the changes we have proposed are likely to impact some current colleagues' roles. We are currently in a collective consultation process, giving our colleagues the opportunity to have a meaningful dialogue, with the process completing in early August. From this, the new structure will be finalised and we will then be able to give members more information about what this means for The Kennel Club in 2024 and beyond.

In terms of our subsidised areas, we want to continue to support these and ensure we offer the best service possible, whilst also looking, longer term, at how we reduce the levels of subsidisation needed. In particular, in 2024 we will be launching a Regional Support Network to support clubs and events on the ground. We plan to split the UK into regions, with a regional support advisor for each, who will support secretaries with all club administration as well as being out and about in their regions supporting shows and events.

We will also be launching the Judges Education platform, which will provide high quality and accessible training for judges, ensuring that shows are judged consistently and with health in mind, as well as providing a level playing field for all judges.

We will continue reviewing, with our stakeholders, how we can reinvigorate membership services and our dog training model. With the latter, using the extensive activities survey carried out in 2023 as a basis, we will be gaining further insights from clubs and members in the coming months to ensure that we get the right solutions.

All of these steps circle back to what we have identified as being central to The Kennel Club and who we are now and will be in the future. We need to continue to invest in the here and now and the registration fee increase proposal is central to that. But we are also building something that is far more secure and stable for the future, and I hope you share in our enthusiasm about the great strides we are making, and the historic opportunities we are reaching for, as a Club.

As ever, we give our heartfelt thanks for your patience. We know that these processes do not deliver results overnight and I thank our board of directors who have tirelessly volunteered their time to support this process. We also thank our colleagues at The Kennel Club, who have made all of the work we have been doing possible and who have shown their dedication and loyalty throughout. I have personally been endlessly inspired by the passion, talent and commitment of those who are part of our Kennel Club and by what we continue, to achieve.'

Following the two reports, questions were raised and addressed on the potential expansion of membership, the microchipping of cats, the cost of veterinary fees and future income streams.

6. The Chairman then turned to item 5, which was to receive an update on The Kennel Club finances. The Chairman invited the chairman of the Finance Committee, Mr H Heathcote, and the Chief Operating Officer and Deputy Chief Executive, Mrs J Edgar, to give a presentation to the members, providing more analysis on the annual accounts. Following the presentation, questions were raised and addressed on staffing levels and The Kennel Club's heritage assets.
7. Under item 6, the members received the audited accounts for the year ended 31 December 2023 for The Kennel Club Limited, under Article 41.3.2.
8. Item 7 was to appoint Price Bailey LLP as auditors for the ensuing year. This was proposed by the Board and it was confirmed that no seconder was required under the terms of the Articles of Association. With the inclusion of the proxy votes, this was carried.
9. The Chairman then turned to item 8, the election of Vice-Presidents for the ensuing year. The Chairman proposed the following for re-election as Vice-Presidents: Professor Steve P Dean, The Rt Hon Lord Fairhaven, the Lord Kirkham and Sir John Spurling. It was confirmed that the proposal did not require a seconder under the terms of the Articles of Association and was voted on en bloc. With the inclusion of the proxy votes, the proposals were carried unanimously.
10. The Chairman invited Dr I Gabriel to present item 9 of the agenda, the proposed election of Honorary Life Members of The Kennel Club in accordance with Article 33. The proposals were voted on en bloc and, with the inclusion of the proxy votes, were carried unanimously and the following were elected: Professor Peter Bedford, Mr Kevin Clifford, Mrs Estelle Elliott-Wilson, Mrs Cecily Guard, Mrs Susan Homewood, Mrs Maureen Nixon and Mrs Kari Wilberg.
11. The Chairman invited Dr Gabriel to present item 10 of the agenda, the proposed election of Dr R James as an Honorary Life member in recognition of his dedication and service given to the Club over the years. With the inclusion of the proxy votes, the proposal was carried unanimously.
12. The Chairman invited the Vice-Chairman, Mr P Eardley, to take item 11, the election of nine members of the Board in accordance with Article 29; eight for a three-year term and one for a one-year term. Following Mrs A White's decision to stand down from the election, there were 10 candidates, seven of whom were retiring by rotation and who were offering themselves for re-election and three further nominations. Those standing were Mr G Robertson, Mrs N Ackerley-Kemp, Mrs S Garner, Mr T Mather, Mr A Allcock OBE, Mr L Janaway, Mr J Bailey, Mrs C Kisko, Mr R Harlow and Mr D Guy.

Once the ballot papers had been collected, the Chairman moved to item 12 of the agenda.
13. The Chairman advised that a single paper ballot would be used for items 12, 13 and 14. Under item 12, it was proposed on behalf of the Board that in accordance with Kennel Club A3.a (Membership Subscriptions), the annual subscription for Ordinary Members be increased by 10%, such that: Members paying by direct debit – an increase from £150 to £165; Members paying by cash/card – an increase from £160 to £176; Members paying by direct debit and household discount applies – an increase from £125 to £137.50; Members paying by cash/card and household discount applies – an increase from £135 to £148.50 (Effective: 1 July 2024). A question was raised and addressed on the production of The Kennel Club Stud Book as a benefit of membership.

14. The Chairman advised that items 13 and 14 would be covered in a single discussion. He invited the Vice-Chairman, Mr Eardley to outline these proposals further.

Mr Eardley advised that under item 13, it was proposed on behalf of the Board that Kennel Club Rule A7.b. Rules applying to Committees, be amended so that the Business Committees be retitled Non-Sporting Committees and the Finance Committee be retitled the Business Committee.

Under item 14, it was proposed on behalf of the Board that these changes be reflected in the wording of Rule A7.c. for consistency.

There were no questions raised and the Vice-Chairman invited the members to vote using a single ballot paper for all three items. Once the ballot papers had been collected, the Chairman moved to item 15 of the agenda.

15. The Chairman advised that items 15 to 20, regarding the fees for registrations, transfers and the litter naming service within the A Rules, would be covered in a single discussion and that a single paper ballot covering all six items would be conducted at the conclusion of the discussion. The Chairman invited the Chief Executive to outline each of six items as follows:

Under item 15, it was proposed on behalf of the Board that Kennel Club Rule A(C): Scale of Fees 2. Canine Services 2.1 Registrations (a) (i) and (ii) be amended so that the fee for each registered puppy (within 12 months of birth) for non-ABS (Assured Breeders scheme) members be increased from £20 to £25 and for ABS members from £18 to £20.

Under item 16, it was proposed on behalf of the Board that Kennel Club Rule A(C): Scale of Fees 2. Canine Services 2.1 Registrations (b) be amended so that the fee for each registered dog (12 months and over) be amended from £60 to £80.

A comment was raised on the cost of registrations as a percentage of the average price of a puppy. The Chairman invited the members to vote using a single ballot paper for all six items. Once the ballot papers had been collected, the Chairman moved to item 21 of the agenda.

16. Under item 21, it was proposed on behalf of the Board that Kennel Club Rule A (A): Use of the Club Premises by Members: 9. Dress Code, be amended in accordance with Club policy as agreed from time to time. The Chairman invited members of the Club Committee, Ms L Paterson and Mr R Harlow to speak on the proposal. Following a discussion on the proposal, the Chairman invited the members to vote by ballot paper. Once the ballot papers had been collected, the Chairman moved to item 22 of the agenda.

17. Item 22 was to receive a report from the Crufts Committee. The Chairman invited the Chairman of the Crufts Committee, Mr T Mather to give a report on the 2024 show.

18. The Chairman introduced item 23 of the agenda, outlining that this was a discussion item on Kennel Club policies. He invited the Vice-Chairman to introduce the item before inviting Mr D Cavill to address the members. The Chairman concluded that Mr Cavill's points had been noted.

Following the item, a member spoke to remind members of their rights to vote on any item of expenditure in excess of £100,000.

19. The Chairman then moved to item 24 of the agenda, General Business, and advised that none had been received.

The Chairman then opted to use his discretion under Article 46.3.2 to adjourn the Annual General Meeting to allow time for the counting of the votes to take place.

20. Having adjourned the Annual General Meeting, the Chairman formally opened the Special General Meeting [SGM]. He advised that a single paper ballot would be used for all five items on the agenda.

21. Item 1 of the SGM agenda was a Special Resolution on behalf of the Board that, pursuant to section 77(1)(a) of the Companies Act 2006, the registered name of the Company be changed to 'The Royal Kennel Club Limited'.

22. Item 2 of the SGM agenda was a Special Resolution on behalf of the Board that, with effect from the change of name of the Company to 'The Royal Kennel Club Limited', the Articles of Association of the Company be amended: i) by replacing the definition of 'the Company' in Article 1.1 to 'the Company means The Royal Kennel Club Limited the company limited by guarantee with registered number 8217778'; and ii) by replacing the words 'the Kennel Club' with 'The Royal Kennel Club' in every place where such words appear in the Articles of Association.

23. Item 3 of the SGM agenda was a Special Resolution on behalf of the Board that Kennel Club Article 9.2 Directors to take decisions decisively, be amended to 'Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing. A resolution in writing signed (via email confirmation) by a majority of the Directors who are at the relevant time entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board and who would be entitled to vote on the resolution at a meeting of the Board (if that number is sufficient to constitute a quorum) shall be as valid and effectual as a resolution passed at a meeting of the Board properly called and constituted. The resolution in writing may be contained in one document or in several documents in like form each signed (via email confirmation) by one or more of the Directors concerned.'

24. Item 4 of the SGM agenda was a Special Resolution on behalf of the Board that Kennel Club Article 10.3 Calling a Meeting of the Board, be amended to allow the Chairman discretion to call a meeting of the Board with less than seven days' notice.

25. Item 5 of the SGM agenda was a Special Resolution on behalf of the Board that Kennel Club Article 53 Written Resolution, be amended as follows: 53.2 In Article 53.1, the 'Appropriate Majority' is: 53.2.1 in the case of an ordinary resolution, a simple majority of the Voting Members. 53.2.2 in the case of a special resolution, 75% or more of the Voting Members.

The Chairman invited the members to vote using a single ballot paper for all five items. Once the ballot papers had been collected, the Chairman called a short break to allow for the counting of the votes on the SGM special resolutions.

26. Following the break, the Chairman read out the SGM ballot results. All five items had reached the three-quarters majority threshold required and were carried.

27. The Chairman declared the Special General Meeting closed and re-opened the Annual General Meeting.

The Chairman announced the result of the voting on item 11, the ballot for members of the Board, and announced that the eight members elected for a three-year term were Mr A Allcock OBE, Mr T Mather, Mr D Guy, Mr G Robertson, Mrs C Kisko, Mrs N Ackerley-Kemp, Mrs S Garner and Mr R Harlow, and the member elected for a one-year term was Mr J Bailey.

The Chairman thanked all the candidates for standing to be a Director of The Kennel Club.

The Chairman announced the result of the voting on item 12. The item had reached the simple majority threshold required and was carried.

The Chairman read out the voting results of items 13 to 20. All eight items had reached the two-thirds majority threshold required and were carried.

The Chairman announced the result of the voting on item 21 and advised that the two-thirds majority threshold required had not been reached and therefore the proposal had not been passed.

The Chairman thanked the members for attending the meetings and declared the AGM closed. A vote of thanks was given to the Chairman.
